BETHEL.

From Our Own Correspondent.
We are living in an age of improvement. Our genial friend, Postmaster Robinson, is building a new station here. In contemplation a new door yard fence which we must say is needed very much, he is also putting a new roof on his barn, but this is only a pretense to what is coming in the line of improvements and repairs on his fine premises.
Mr. J. T. Way is making rapid progress on his fine new brick residence. He has the brick work done and the roof on; it will be a fine structure when done. Mr. Way is one of those men who when he does a job does it right, and he says this house is for himself. He is not erecting it for show but with an eye to comfort, convenience and durability. Sensible man, say we.
The next man we come to is Mr. A. B. Coolidge who is making extensive repairs to his outbuilding and is building a large addition to his barn; he has got a new pump also and it is painted red and looks gay.
The next neighbor is Mr. McMullen who is also making large repairs.
Mr. John Crawford comes with a new frame house. John has a new door yard fence in contemplation which will not come any too quick as the old one has done duty for the last half a century or more.
Mr. G. Wright is erecting a mansion on the ridge. It is not far from the advanced in the course of construction to tell much about it yet but we guess it will be a stunner, but getting on. I guess this is enough in the building line, but we have lots more to follow.
Mrs. Jacob Foster has come home to her father's, Mr. Samuel Gardner. She is in very poor health.
Mrs. Reed has returned from Belleville, where she has been visiting friends for the last three or four weeks.
Mr. Herb. Way lost a fine cow.
There are several horses bad with the distemper around here.
Mr. & Mrs. Mack, daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Sise, have been on a visit to friends here. They have returned to their home in Rawdon.

LONSDALE.

From Our Own Correspondent.
There was a narrow escape of a party of river-drivers and others, who assembled on Kingsford bridge on Monday night for the purpose of having a little fun. The railing was filled on each side with men, it is said from 75 to 100, and dancing had just commenced on the bridge when it gave way, and all were hurled to the water below. A distance of ten feet, some being caught fast in the debris and badly bruised. Mr. Jas. Wheter was badly bruised, and it is said, lost $50 in cash with two checks each of $100 and his watch smashed; others were more or less hurt, but none seriously, though all were badly shaken up. Mr. John Francis being on hand at the time selected timber for a new bridge from the drive which was passing, immediately telegraphed to his men who are now at work, and will, no doubt, have a new bridge built as soon as possible.
Our pathmaster has his men at work on our streets again doing staking labor. Last year the work done by him gave the best of satisfaction, he being a Scott Act man at the time and not cracked by alcohol. This year being so elated by again having the office, and again having command of such a force of men, together with money paid for some who chose to pay him, he was warned. But before warning all he got on a spree, using abusive and profane language on the streets to the amount of many. On Monday day a large number gathered on the streets where best and smoothest places were, nearly all of which will have to be removed, a quantity of which being left in front of Mr. Dennis Neale's hotel making it difficult to pass; after which, it is said, he slept, and did not appear to give further orders until next morning, when on inspecting the work said: "He did not know what the d— the boys drew the stones there for," and is now trying to make the work of some use, though most of it is worse than nothing. We hope he will become sane and remain so in future, both for his own good and his family.
A large number of men have been camped here for several days driving the Rathbun Co's lumber. It is said they will be through here to-day, Wednesday. They are a quiet lot of men and will miss them.

CURING CLOVER.

My own method of curing clover, or part clover and timothy, is to cut in the afternoon and evening, and let it lie exposed as left spread out by the machine, all night. The dew will not hurt it. The next morning, as soon as the dew is off, spread out with a fork all the thick masses, or lodged portions of the field. And then, as soon as the surface of the hay is dry, rake into thin windrows. Turn these windrows by hand and spread out a little where necessary. Then, in the middle of the afternoon, rake these windrows into large bunches and make the hay into cocks. We do not stop to gather up the hay clean. It is a waste of time and labor. Follow with a steel horse-rake and dump the hay as near the cock as possible. We keep two rakes going and aim to do as much of the work as possible with the rakes. An intelligent boy on the rake will save half the labor of cocking. We rake all the land between the rows of cocks and as much as possible between the cocks themselves. The rakes are put on top of the cocks and at the same time we trim up the cocks and make them compact and snug. All the hay you rake up in the evening is saved; all that is left is lost or damaged. Old rakes, after being exposed to rain or dew for two or three days, are worth less than good straw.

NOTICE.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

THE Partnership formerly carried on in Deseronto under the firm name of Sager Bros., as Grocers and Provision Dealers, was dissolved by mutual consent on the 15th day of January 1886, Edmund Sager retiring from the business and George J. Sager continuing the same and assuming all the liabilities, and as to the accounts owing the account of the firm must be paid.

VARIOUS TOPICS.

As to the relative merits of hard and soft steel rails, the investigations in Germany seem to leave the matter of wear indeterminate, with the conclusion that the wear of rails depends more upon the impurity of the steel than upon the hardness or softness.

Companies that are the most successful in the West. One of them has this advertisement in a Kansas City newspaper: "The black and white monster of the air, the already appeared in 1880. Take out a tornado policy in the Pioneer Cyclopedia and Windstorm Company."

At a firm's picnic in Chicago the day following the picnic, the picnic was held at one of the stands, and in the darkness the barkeeper gave them three cups of kerosene oil. They drank half of it before discovering the mistake, and then thought they were poisoned. A doctor gave them an emetic and they recovered.

George Fuller of Sanbury, Pa., on Sunday after church took a book, and seating himself in a swing in his yard, read and idly swung. The swing, made of upright post and a heavy beam, resting on a tree, was, as the upright gave way and the creaking came down, and striking Fuller on the head, killed him very badly.

Little John Alexander and a companion of Newport, Vt., thought to have lots of fun by scolding a clerk who slept in a store. So they snatched on their hats and walked into the store, and the clerk thought burglars were trying to get in, and drew his revolver, and a ball went through the door and entered Johnny's head, killing him very badly.

It is difficult to get a drink in Minneapolis on Sunday, but a friend fellow got the other evening. He went into a drugstore with a bottle of water, and asked the clerk what it was, went into raptures over the rare specimen he had found, and bought ten cents' worth of alcohol to preserve it in. Then he went out and had a drink.

A daughter of James Young of Nashua, N. H., was unable to walk for several years. She had tried all medical remedies had failed to cure her a faith healer, Dr. Baker, visited her and succeeded in relieving her so that she could walk. She was cured. Having done this the Doctor offered to marry her, and the two recently wedded.

The big timber raft now being built in Halifax, and destined for New York city, is nearly done. It will be 410 feet long, 50 feet wide, 35 feet deep, and will contain 2,500,000 superfeet of lumber. It will be held together by an elaborate system of chains. It is thought that if this monster succeeds in getting to New York safely from Halifax it will revolutionize the lumber carrying trade.

Louis Wilson of Cameron, Mo., 8 years old, was knocked down and run over in the street, and a heavy wheel passed over his chest, breaking the ribs that connect the ribs and the breast bone. He never uttered a cry; but when his playmates thronged around him he said, "I'm all right." "Go away! Why, you all run as if I was a side show." Louis will get well, the doctors say.

A negro who borrowed money enough of a Raleigh merchant to get a marriage license explained his action by saying that he had a pretty good sized cotton crop, and had heard that the farmer talked of destroying it more wages. He had therefore looked about, and having found a healthy widow with three able bodied children would marry her next Sunday and so the children at work on the farm on Monday.

Thomas J. Perkins, of Tallahassee, is a man of regular habits. He has lived in that town 40 years; been in one business 34 years; worn one pair of pants 34 years; worn one watch 36 years; been superintendent of one Sunday School 40 years; volunteered one paper 42 years; been a member, and trustee, and kept the records of one church 44 years; lived in one house 45 and with one wife 40 years.

Charles Hatch, of St. Joseph, Ill., penned some logs belonging to a great Glascock which were trespassing. Then he told Glascock about it, and demanded $2 damages before he would deliver the logs. Glascock objected. A quarrel ensued. Hatch demanded Glascock to go out in the road and fight it out. Both started for the road, but before they got there Charles Hatch in the head with a club and killed him. Both were well-to-do farmers.

There is one honest boy in Wichita, Kansas, and he is a bookbinder. The other day he blacked the boots of a gentleman, and the hotel, who gave him, as he supposed, five copper cents. An hour later the boy returned, hunted up the gentleman, and handed him a $5 gold piece, which he had given as a cent. The gentleman was equal to the occasion, for at once took the boy to a clothing store and bought him a suit.

The three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Kiley, of Frankfort, Mo., fell into a well containing nine feet of water, which was about ten feet from the surface. With much exertion Mrs. Kiley jumped into the well, seized the child, fixed the little one's feet firmly in the walls, and then waited for assistance. It came in the form of a neighbor, who, after a long wait, and a great deal of shouting, and mother and child were both saved.

An Indian funeral procession in eastern Oregon is thus described: "The defunct had been set upon a horse, and a stick had been placed in the mouth of his body to keep it in an upright position. The horse was not supported in any way, and as the horse trotted along the body seemed bowling in every direction, the head shaking in a horribly grotesque manner. The widow, dressed in her mourning plaid, trotted along behind on a lacy mule. The body was kept vigorously applying the whip."

A Nova Scotia bear, not succeeding in getting through two-inch planks that formed five feet of the base of a sheepfold, roared above them, where his body was used, and chewed and clawed there until he made a hole big enough to scramble through. The farmer heard the noise, and the bear jumped from his bed, and rushed to their aid. In one moment and armed with a three-foot pitchfork, the bear's body was so much for the bear, who went out the way he came in and escaped.

A private letter published in a Kansas paper tells of a party of men and a girl who were camped in southwestern Kansas one night when a meteor fell near them. In the morning they were found buried in the ground, and still quite warm.

warm. They managed to break off a chunk of about a pound and a half weight, carried it to Denver, and had it assayed. It passed out about 20 per cent of gold, 61 per cent of iron, and 11 per cent nickel, with copper and other metals. The party are going back with dynamite, which they calculate weighs five tons. If the assay holds out they'll get a ton of gold.

A Prairie Settlement.

One autumn day in the year 1880 a small emigrant train came to a halt on the bank of a stream in Manitoba. The train consisted of a large covered wagon, a "prairie schooner," drawn by four horses, three ordinary farm-wagons heavily loaded, and drawn by mules, and a small herd of cattle. A man of about forty years, evidently the first of the traveling family, drew up his horse on a little grassy knoll near the stream, and got down from the high seat of the "prairie schooner"; the young fellows who were driving the mule teams followed the example of their father, while the hired man, lower down, approached the group of wagons. The father was saying "Well, from the agent's description; this is to be our prairie home."

They looked about with considerable satisfaction. On the western bank of the small river was a large strip of timberland, and toward the east and south lay the undulating prairie, the many who were looking at this range of hills stretching away until they lost sight of the prairie in the distance. Dairy and Stock Topics.

The best butter is made on the old-fashioned butter churn.

Rye bread is a common feed for horses in England and Germany.

Sprinkle salt upon the back of a lamb to keep the ticks off.

The butter supply can be increased by frequent stirring of the cream.

The cows should be milked, "as regular as clock-work," at the same hour, and in precisely the same order, each day.

Keep young pigs dry and warm. Clean pens and dry beds are needed to keep them healthy.

A flagstone floor is the best for the dairy; wood, cement or brick absorbs drippings, and the floor soon becomes foul and odorous.

A Maine man says the way to start an obstinate horse is to take him out of the shafts and lead him around until he is giddy.

The last month of an animal's life has great influence upon its flesh, because the feeding during that period largely determines the flavor and quality.

Stock needs salt, and it is a matter that is often overlooked. The various cases of colic in horses and hoven in cattle are caused by a deficiency of a supply of salt.

The small mow of milk furnished by one cow may be made into a very good butter by the butter yield that is the best test of a cow's value.

When pigs will go eight and probably ten hours without feed if properly fed at evening and morning. They should have water more frequently, but never when hot.

The root crops for swine should consist of a variety; the farmer should grow not only beets and turnips for them, but parsnips and carrots also. The cheapest pork is that made from roots securing rapid growth on roots and grass.

A mixture of skimmed milk, buckwheat bran, and cornmeal with good corn fodder should be a very good feed for an ordinary cow. It is better than any other feed, but parsnips and carrots also. The cheapest pork is that made from roots securing rapid growth on roots and grass.

HOUSEHOLD.

SOME TIPS FOR DESERTS.

As the weather becomes warmer, puddings, custards, etc., are the place of rich pastry, and the making of these light, fluffy dishes is a pleasure to most cooks. A few hints, however, will help you to make them more palatable, and will save you a great deal of trouble.

Successful.
A gentleman who spent some years travelling in the mountains of Colorado relates the following story, which illustrates what can be accomplished by a resolute boy who is guided by right principles, and who sets out with the firm determination to succeed.

"I was a young man, and a handsome one, and there are in every road to real success. 'I was climbing a long and dreary mountain trail one day in June,' says the traveller, 'when I was taken by a small but very big looking boy, of about fifteen. He was poorly dressed, and a small bundle tied up in a red cotton handkerchief was all the baggage he had. I was sitting down for a little while when he came up to me, stepping lightly and pluckily along, although he looked tired, as he doubtless was, for the trail was very rough and steep.

"How are you, sir?" he said. His voice was that of the section, but there was earnestness in it; his language was unpolished and provincial, but the spirit of it was manly.

"Tired," I said.

"Well, so I am," he replied, "but it must be very nearly to the top of the mountain."

"Where are you from?"

"From Denver. Left there ten days ago."

"You haven't walked all the way?"

"Yes."

"Why, Denver is two hundred miles from here!"

"Yes, but I've walked it all the same. Had to or not, and I didn't see any chance for me there, as five dollars and a half was all the money I had."

"Where are you going now?"

"To A—a new mine! camp. They say things are lively there, and I think that I'll give a chance."

"What do you want to do?"

"Well, I don't, sir, anything, the thing with me is what I don't want to do. I'm in for anything I can get that'll give me a decent living."

"The next morning I journeyed on together all that day. It was hot and wearisome walking, but he made no complaint. He was cheerful, frank, and hopeful—three valuable equipments in beginning life's journey."

"We reached A—that night, and I offered to pay for a supper and lodging for the boy, for he had told me that all his money was gone."

"No," he said, "you needn't take no trouble on my account. I'll do a chore or two some place for my supper. I like a day's work, and I'll be a lodger that way in this country, as it's better a bed 'behind' to any one."

"The next morning I caught a glimpse of my man in embryo washing dishes in the kitchen of the little mountain hotel at which I was staying."

"Late in the day I met him coming from a spring, with two pails of water."

"Get a job," he said, cheerily. "Serve one day on my board. It ain't like being a professor on a salary, but it's a right beginnin', anyhow."

"You're a philosopher," I said, laughingly.

"No, I'm a dish-washer," he said, in all seriousness.

"The camp was most prosperous, and a month later I came across my little friend in an eight-by-ten stall, with an open floor and a sign which read a copper-ore counter with tables."

"A few weeks later I found the boy in another part of the mine, a little more advanced, with two tables and a long lunch counter. He had hired a cook, and 'his men,' he said, 'was booming.'"

"His business grew, and he is becoming successful."

"This is, of course, an exceptional case, but then he had an unusual boy. He had the will to labor and the power to achieve. He had great courage, and was very energetic. He had not been discouraged. He had the 'try again' spirit. He was honest, and was ready to do what his hands found to do. This is the kind of spirit that is needed for success in the West."

PORT LARAMEE.

An Old Frontier Post—The Massacre by the Sioux.

Port Laramie is beautifully located, thirty-six miles north of Cheyenne, on the North Platte River, about a month's ride from the Rocky Mountains in sight, with easy trails that present to the traveler at the first sight a picture of a military post, or the spot where the post stands, was first occupied by a fur trading company, from 1820 to 1824, into the hands of John Jacob Astor.

During the year 1820, when the Calfornia gold fever was at its height and the great army of gold seekers was to their way slowly and by many means of difficult and weary travel, the government took notice of the place for troops and established a permanent military post. We follow this old stage and emigrant trail sixty-five miles west and reach the La Pierre Creek, where Slade, at whom Mark Twain tells so much, ran his course of successful fortunes. Near this point occurred the Grattan massacre, the first of that series which has made this region historic.

In 1861 a treaty was made between the government and the Sioux Indians, one of the terms being that the supplies for the latter were to be delivered yearly at Fort Laramie. In July, 1864, Indians to the number of several thousand had gathered to receive their supplies, but owing to the fact that the goods could not be gotten here for three or four weeks later than usual, the Indians were left in a state of impatience. I will let Sergeant Snyder, who figured so prominently at this time in saving a further massacre of probably the entire garrison, tell the story as he related it.

"One day in August an ox was missed from a Mormon emigrant train lying in camp near by. Some of the Mormons called upon the commanding officer at Fort Laramie, Lieutenant Fleming, and made complaint to the effect that the Indians had killed an ox belonging to them. Lieutenant Grattan and thirty men and one field piece was ordered to call upon the Indians and demand of them the ox which had killed the ox. Lieutenant Grattan was met by the chief MATTOOWAH, an Indian who was held in high estimation by the military. The lieutenant was informed that they knew the wrong warriors who had committed the crime, but that they would not be surrendered, and that the ox was an old and crippled one, but that they would give in payment for it two ponies to make good loss to the Mormons. Grattan had gathered to receive their supplies, but owing to the fact that the goods could not be gotten here for three or four weeks later than usual, the Indians were left in a state of impatience. I will let Sergeant Snyder, who figured so prominently at this time in saving a further massacre of probably the entire garrison, tell the story as he related it.

number of books of an old date and rare editions. Among others are "Wat's Logic," published in 1807; "An Equal Check" being the first part of the "Scripture Scales," 1808;
"Methodist Magazine," 1799; "Arminian Magazine," 1794; "Paradise Regained," a rare edition, printed by Tanson, in 1705.

On Saturday afternoon, the 3rd inst, the Quinte carries an excursion of the Oddfellow Batt from Belleville to Napanee. The Quinte leaves Deseronto for Belleville on the return trip at 5 p.m. Person desirous of enjoying a pleasant trip to Belleville as well as the music of the splendid band can go to Belleville and return for 25 cents. No doubt many will avail themselves of this opportunity.

The "Tourist" glove fitting Corset is the best, being light, easy, durable, and the best fitting Corset made, for sale at The Big Store.

Mr. R. M. Jack, assumes charge of the Empire Hotel during Mr. Jamieson's absence in the mother country.

Remember that J. R. Irish, the dentist, will be at the Deseronto House on Wednesday, July 2.

William Flavell, of Forester's Falls, Renseville County, is the oldest Orangeman in Canada. The veteran is 102 years of age.
Among the passengers by the "Quinte" to Pictou last Saturday evening were fourteen immigrants just out from Great Britain.

The str. "Resolute" carries large numbers of passengers to Oswego every trip.
Additional passenger accommodation will soon be a pressing necessity.

Two men a day will in future be carried over the line of the N. T. & Q. Ry., and changes of time-table have been made in consequence.

Every visitor to Toronto should visit the Zoological Gardens. We are indebted to Mr. Harry Piper, the manager, for a season ticket for 1886.

The "Indiana" has been up on the marine railway during the past week, being calked and otherwise put in readiness for her summer work at Trenton.

The other of the steamers "Quinte" and "Gipsy" now appear in handsome naval uniforms resplendent with gold buttons and lace trimmings, etc.

Large quantities of wire fencing continue to arrive daily by steamer Gipsy for shipment over the B. of Q. and G. T. railways to points east and west.

Every direct attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Gifford & Son, of Napanee, this firm has deservedly secured a reputation throughout Central Ontario for their furniture and similar goods. They offer, as will be seen, wonderful bargains in that line.

Mrs. Hill, organist of St. Andrew's Church, Guelph, again officiated at the organ in the Church of the Redeemer last Sunday evening and gave evidence of her well known skill as a musician. Mr. James Stoddard, of Toronto, contributed a vocal solo last Sunday evening in an artistic manner.

The funeral of the late Mr. Chas. Dryden took place last Friday afternoon and was very numerously attended. The Oddfellows of Deseronto and Napanee were present and conducted their beautiful burial service at the Napanee cemetery.

No injurious effects can follow the use of Ayer's Sore Throat Remedy in malady diseases.
It contains a specific and unfailing antidote for miasmatic poisons, with remedial agents which expel poisonous humours, purify the system and leave it healthy and reinvigorated.

Work on the extension of the Methodist Church will begin in the course of a few weeks. While the alteration is in progress services will be held in the "district" tent which has been secured for the purpose. The tent will be pitched in the vacant lot west of Mr. R. Rayburn's residence on Thomas street.

Mrs. James Chamberlain is canvassing Deseronto for the sale of the "Life and Labors of Rev. A. Schuster." The proceeds of the sales go to the support of the Belleville City Mission. The book retails at 35 cents and those who purchase will not only get a book well worth the money but they will be aiding a worthy charity.

LOCAL TRAIN.—For the benefit of the Travelling Public and to afford accommodation to the people of Deseronto, a mixed train leaves the R. R. Depot every morning at 7:45 for Kingston. Parties can go to Kingston or Napanee and back same day having about eight hours in Napanee and four in Kingston. Low rates of Fare.
Kingston and return, $2.20. Napanee and return, 50 cents.

The skill sailing race, the first event of the season under the auspices of the Deseronto Boating Club took place on Tuesday evening. Boats were entered by the following gentlemen viz: The Commodore, and Messrs. G. M. Taylor, Sills and E. Edwards. The course was triangular, distance three miles. Mr. W. D. McKee acted as starter, and a good start was made. Mr.
Taylor's skiff "The Commodore" led from the front and continued easily and steadily to increase her distance to the finish, the Commodore's skiff coming in second, and the two others following. Mr. Edwards thus became the winner of the prize, a beautiful flag, presented by Dr. Clinton, Mate of the Club.

Children's Waists and Corsets in all sizes, cheap at The Big Store.

The thermometer indicated 82° in the shade on Tuesday, thus far the hottest day of the first half of the year.

A regular meeting of Craig Lodge, A. F. &
A. M., will be held on the evening of Tuesday, 4th inst. Important business will be transacted and a full attendance is requested.

Over 120 ladies of the Methodist congregation gladly gave their services in preparing for the dinner for the Odd-fellows, Picnic.

The High School Entrance examinations take place in the Deseronto Public School on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Rev. R. J. Craig, presides on the occasion. There will be 35 candidates, 23 from Deseronto.

An exciting aquatic event takes place on Saturday evening, 3rd inst. The members of the Deseronto Canoe and Boating Club will then contest in a sailing race for the beautiful silver cup presented by Mrs. M.
D. Campbell. A keen contest is expected.

In no other matter is so good a preparation for the most intelligent study and scientific enquiry been so steadily and progressively utilized as in Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases.

It is of the greatest importance that all bowel and stomach complaints should be attended to at once, especially at this season of the year. West's Pain King is prompt, reliable and certain never to fail. Only 25 cts. Sold by W. G. Edgar, druggist.

RAILWAY ACCOMMODATION.—The Grand Trunk Railway mindful of the interest of the people of Belleville and vicinity has now a train running east to Kingston passing Deseronto at 4:42 p.m., the Bay of Quinte Railway make connection, leaving Deseronto at 4:00 p.m. and is a good serviceable train and one that has been long desired, and no doubt it will be extensively patronized by the travelling public. See Bay of Quinte time bill for particulars.

Mr. W. D. McKee essayed a trip in his canoe last Saturday evening despite the gale which made the attempt hazardous. He got along very well until the rigging was carried away, when notwithstanding his fine seamanship his frail craft upset.
The crew gallantly stuck to the vessel and fortunately escaped with their robes, thus robbing readers of a flattering obituary notice on the many virtues of the genial, versatile and talented Secretary of the R. H. M. C.

Mr. Amos Hicks now makes Moosejaw his headquarters. This new town is on the C. P. R. about 208 miles west of Winnipeg. In earlier days he states that thousands of buffaloes used to be annually killed on the plains in that vicinity. He observed a few days ago fifteen car-loads of bones awaiting shipment having been purchased from half-breeds by an extensive dealer in St. Louis who has spent $10,000 already this season for bones of buffaloes, the average price being five dollars per ton.

The public schools closed on Wednesday for the summer vacation and teachers and pupils are now free for eight weeks enjoyment. Teachers who perform their work conscientiously and faithfully are without doubt the most valuable class in any community as the best authorities freely testify. Their duties are laborious and trying, and too frequently performed without public encouragement or acknowledgment.
We hope that the teachers of the Deseronto schools will enjoy their well earned vacation and all return refreshed and invigorated for the autumn term.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cating teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, relieves the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs.
WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP."

CAPT. FORTE.

Eight little hands have found their sweetest sleep.

Upon the pillow of her gentle breast:

The world is wide, yet nowhere does it keep,

So safe a haven, so complete a rest.

Her hands were neither beautiful nor fair,

Yet seemed they lovely in her children's eyes.

We found our daily strength and comfort there,

And if her hands were rough we were not wise.

'Tis counted something great to be a queen,

To bend a kingdom to a woman's will.

A mother such as mine I deem,

Is something greater and more noble still.

Oh mother, in the changeless years now flown

Since as a child I leant upon your knee,

Life has not brought, nor fortune shown,

Such tender love, such yearning sympathy

Let fortune smile or frown which e'er she will,

It mattered not, I scorned her thimble ways;

I never could feel that you were false,

I felt my mother's bosom blame and praise.

Life has not brought, nor fortune shown,

Such tender love, such yearning sympathy

Let fortune smile or frown which e'er she will,

It mattered not, I scorned her thimble ways;

I never could feel that you were false,

I felt my mother's bosom blame and praise.

Life has not brought, nor fortune shown,

Such tender love, such yearning sympathy

Let fortune smile or frown which e'er she will,

It mattered not, I scorned her thimble ways;

I never could feel that you were false,

I felt my mother's bosom blame and praise.

FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1886.

MARYSVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.
Miss Annie McHenry is spending her vacation with friends in Trenton. Mr. A. L. Allison, of Kingston, paid the village a short visit on Saturday last. I am sorry to learn that Miss Nellie Welch is rather seriously ill. Mr. & Mrs. Chas. Scanlon arrived home on Saturday last from an extended pleasure trip through the province of Quebec. They report having had a splendid time. Our baseball club has become a thing of the past. It was nearly as short lived as the clubhouse. Want of physical endurance during the warm weather was the trouble. It is reported that Peter who looks after Her Majesty's mail keeps a sharp lookout for pretty girls as passengers and feels quite bad when he hears that the old man has taken back a pretty passenger on his day off.

SHANNONVILLE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
Your correspondent is still alive, but owing to the extreme heat has been unable to learn much of the news of the past two weeks. Several of our young people attended the Annual Convocation at Albert College, Belleville, on Tuesday evening June 2nd; Miss Una Edwards, formerly of this place, graduated with first honors in piano-forte course third year; many friends of this village congratulate her on her success. Mr. J. Simmons expects to have a fine crop of raspberries; we learn that several of our young ladies intend paying Fred that long promised visit when berries ripen. Select ice cream parties predominate at present. The Methodist Sabbath School of this place including a lawn festival on the 25th of this month. The masons began their part of the work on Mr. L. E. Hill's new residence Monday morning last. We sympathize deeply with Mr. J. Doreen and family in the loss of their young friend Mr. Alex. McCabe, who died very suddenly on the 25th of June at Trenton.

LONSDALE.

From Our Own Correspondent.
The farmers about here are making great complaints about the dry weather and a prospect of short crops, but are "making hay while the sun shines" and I suppose if we should get a good rain they would not be satisfied. Many are getting their hay housed in excellent condition but say the old meadows are light and new ones good. Mr. Robert Winters has been severely afflicted with one eye for several weeks. He thinks they are slowly improving under the skillful treatment of Dr. Reider. Mr. Bruin has returned home from a few days visiting friends in the country. Mr. Foster, millwright, is making a general overhauling in the grist mill here and is putting in the new process for grinding. We have just received the solemn news of the death of Miss Elizabeth Hickerson, daughter of Wm. Hickerson, of the second con. of Tyndalton, who was called to the plain only a few days though not considered dangerous as her physician pronounced her doing well until Tuesday evening, 6th inst., when Dr. Reider was called but too late to be of any help as she expired a few minutes after his arrival. Elizabeth's mother died when she was a small girl and she was left to manage the household affairs for a lonely father and family, which by hard labour and a willing heart she did in the best of order for about twelve years until called away to her reward. For a number of years she had been a very consistent member of the Methodist Church and we are told that she died when first taken sick she would not recover and expressed her willingness to depart and join those who have passed on before in the praises of her Saviour. Her aged and sorrowful father and family have the sympathy of their many friends and acquaintances in their very severe bereavement.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
The Rev. Father McCarthy and a large number from this neighborhood attended the Catholic Picnic at Black's Grove on Dominion Day. A meeting in favor of Home Rule was held in Hanley's Hall on Tuesday evening. An inquirer asks me is Don Carlos? Is he a fool or a lunatic? In answer we beg to state, that if I inquirer or any of his friends of the feathered tribe take him for either one or the other, they will, perchance, be grievously mistaken. Don Carlos is mentally sound and has cut his wisdom teeth. He is also a splendid marksman, and will go right through a whip-poor-will's nest at 1,000 yards. He is a man of honor and integrity, and a prophet with honor even in his own country. Our athletic young men have organized a football club. They have developed a good deal of skill and activity, and are ready at any time to receive a challenge from any neighboring club. R. R. Palmer Esq., Insurance Agent of Belleville, was visiting at Mr. J. McGehee's on Friday last. During the evening he was prostrated by a very sharp attack of inflammation of the bowels and has been lying sick since. Dr. Foran, of Melrose, has been in attendance. We are said to learn that Mr. Palmer is better and hopes to be soon around again. Our excellent teacher Miss McHenry held the usual half yearly examination of her school on Friday last. A large number of visitors were present including the Trustees, Mr. J. C. Hunter, Mr. John Brennan and Mr. Michael Buckley. There was a searching examination of the several classes from which it appeared that the school had made a very marked improvement under the present teacher, showing the care and attention which Miss McHenry had bestowed upon her pupils. The exercises were varied by singing by several of the pupils. All did well but Miss Rose Anne McGuinness and Miss Tessie Shannon were particularly noticed. The latter, leader of the choir, as she was called by one of the visitors "Old folks at home," being joined in the chorus by several of the pupils with a ling effect. Short addresses were given by the trustees and others, in which the teacher was deservedly complimented on the industry and interest displayed by her in school, as evidenced by the steady progress of the pupils. Another day was spent in a general renovating and clearing up of the schoolhouse and grounds. Flower beds were made and flowers planted and the general appearance of the schoolhouse and grounds shows that the day was well spent. Mrs. York, of Richmond, who died last week was buried in St. Charles Cemetery last Sunday. It is again badly needed. We have had very fine, but intensely hot weather during the last two weeks. The farmers are now all busy with their hay. It has been unseasonable weather for curing clover. Many of the old meadows are not worth cutting, and the farmers have in many cases turned in their cattle on them. Where there is any worth cutting the crop is very licit. Miss McHenry has left to spend her vacation with friends in Trenton, Napanee and Kingston. Mrs. Palmer is gaining laurels for herself in the teaching and training of the choir. Under her direction the choir are making steady progress, and receive the highest praise from visitors from all quarters. Mr. Thomas Murphy has returned home from his vacation for the vacation, having successfully passed his examinations. The many friends of Mr. Chas. Meade will be glad to learn that he is well, and has been studying from Ottawa College to Morristown for the vacation. PERSONAL. Miss Douglas, of Napanee, is the guest of Miss Whittion, Dundas-st. Mr. Saml. D. Clark, of Richmond, was in town on Saturday. Mr. P. West, Deputy Reeve of Tyndalton, was in town on Monday. Mr. E. G. Chant, of Port Hope, was a visitor in Deseronto on Monday. Alexandria on Monday to visit friends in Prescott. Mrs. H. Cronk, of Belleville, has been visiting at Mrs. Jas. D. Burgess's, Dundas street. Miss Northcott, of Belleville, is visiting Deseronto at the guest of Miss Davis. Rev. R. J. Craig attended the meeting of the Presbytery in Belleville on Monday. Mr. Chas. A. Millner returned home to Deseronto last Saturday. Miss Annie McWilliams, of Marmora, is the guest of Mrs. R. Rayburn. Mr. F. C. Whittion spent last Sunday in the shiretown of Lennox and Addington. Mr. Harry Knowles left on Saturday to enjoy his summer vacation in the Ambitious City. Mr. Albert Conley, of Rochester, N. Y., gave us the pleasure of a visit on Saturday. He is enjoying a visit to old friends in Deseronto. Mr. C. W. Palmer has been spending a few weeks in Deseronto. Mr. John Hoppes spent Dominion Day in Deseronto. He now sails from Annapolis and looks hearty and cheerful as ever. Mr. & Mrs. Emerson left town on Friday for the summer holidays. Miss Conley, of Stirling, is visiting at Mr. Phil Conley's. Mr. R. & Shipman, of Napanee, went over on a R. R. boat last Wednesday having received three months leave of absence. Miss A. Green, of Stirling, is the guest of Mrs. P. Conley, Fourth-st. Miss Mary McWilliams, of Corbyville, is visiting Deseronto, at the guest of Mrs. R. Rayburn. Mrs. Wm. Porter and family, of Portmouth, who have been visiting at Mr. W. F. Stuart's, have returned home. Mr. Frank Humphreys, of Belleville, has been visiting at Mr. Jas. Mackie's. Mr. John Torrance, representing McGill Bros., Toronto, was in town yesterday.

THE MAN WHO ADVERTISES.

He's just a bit ecstatic but not a whit romantic, and he does it up emphatic, when he reads a business "ad" And he cuts a knowing caper, saying "Put it in the paper, for out of the highest column, if you want to make me glad. Start it with your biggest letter, set it up a little better, than the other fellow's ad across the way. I want it fixed up nice at the cheapest kind of price—I'm going to see if advertising doesn't pay." Now every Spring and Winter he rushes to the printer, and in the time of Summer and the Fall. And his copy is so plain you can read and come again: Oh! the man who advertises knows it all. Then the paper man sits down and scratches on his crown, and he hits his scalp a fearful kind of thud. He's thinking while he's winking: "Were columns made all top my business I could drop, be fat and sleek and rich as mud." ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children Teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. It is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup."

POT BUTTER IN PAIRS.

Not long since I was talking with a noted dealer in butter, and he remarked that he wished a law could be enacted against the practice of balling up butter and putting it on the market in chunks, rolls and balls.

The butter package is now so cheap that no one can afford the time to ball up butter and get it into a shape that the market does not want. It will do for the dairyman who has private customers to whom the butter is sent each week, or else, to make it into

"pairs" but for the general market, butter should be put, as soon as possible, beyond the influence of the air, and this is to place it in small pairs. Air is all right for a few hours in ripening cream, but its influence upon the clear butter fat, is to burn out their carbon, as surely as it burns out the carbon in wood, whether by the quick process of fire or the slow action of decay.

BREAKING A COLT TO THE HALTER.

If the colt endeavors to pull away after the halter is on, you have to circumvent him by a little strategy. Take a common clothes line-rope and make a large slip-loop knotted around the body, draw it moderately tight, and pass the end up between the front legs through the hind legs. The reason for doing this is very apparent. He cannot understand how anything can pull the hind part of a body and his head at the same time, and on feeling the strain behind him will go forward, and thus you will accomplish your object without being compelled to use force. The rope is in the right hand and stand directly in front of the colt, say, in a decided manner, "Come here!"

and at the same time pull the rope sharply.

The colt will invariably come forward, and when he does so, cease him. Repeat this two or three times, until he will quickly move forward: then say, "Come here!"

Next, with the rope hitch him to the manager or to a post, and, standing in front of him, open and shut umbrellas, shake buffe-ties and beat tin pans—in fact, make as much noise as possible without touching him.

Of course he cannot think of two things at once, and the rope tied around catches him

by surprise, and he will end by giving up trying to get away when he finds he is free-

THE "GLORIOUS TWELFTH."

The "Glorious Twelfth" dawned bright and fair and continued so until evening close. The event of the day, as far as the serenade was concerned, was the excursion by steamer to Belleville, under the auspices of Prince Albert Lodge, No. 1,375. The members of the order having assembled at the hall marched in procession to the dock, the Irishman Company band playing inspiring and appropriate airs. Never has it been our good fortune to accompany a more happy, good-natured, or more orderly excursion party than that which thronged the spacious decks of the Quint that morning. The sail was enjoyed by all. Arrived at Belleville the Lodge marched to the agricultural grounds where they were photographed as they entered. Belleville was crowded with visitors, of whom it is said there were 7,000 present, the greatest number ever brought into the city for any demonstration. Every one was on pleasure bent and good-feeling and harmony everywhere prevailed. The procession was a splendid affair, with 1,000 Orangemen taking part, with many brass bands and as many fife and drum bands. There were 75 Judges and 61 stand in the line. There were nearly three miles in length. Thousands of spectators lined the streets and the greatest enthusiasm was manifested. Turning to the agricultural grounds the multitude assembled near the band stand, where addresses were delivered by members of the order and patriotic resolutions were passed, including, among others, one strongly worded condemning the concession of Home Rule to Ireland by Mr. Gladstone. A marked feature of the day's proceedings was the excellent order and good conduct which was everywhere visible. The Deseronto Orangemen and their friends returned by the Quint, the home trip being as pleasant as that of the morning. Thus ended a pleasant and memorable day.

THE EARTHQUAKES IN NEW ZEALAND.
SPECIALLY AWFUL VISITATIONS—GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE SCENES.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—The steamer "Alamanda," from Australia brings particulars of the fearful volcanic eruptions in New Zealand of last month. The first reports of volcanic disturbances came from Taupo, in the Auckland lake district. The natives of that village were awakened from sleep at two a. m. by repeated vivid flashes of lightning, which continued at rapid intervals up to four a. m., when a tremendous earthquake shock followed quickly by others. The shocks were so violent that people jumped from their beds, and were terrified by the rumbling for their lives in their night clothes, taking nothing with them but their children. The earthquakes followed each other in quick succession up to seven o'clock in the morning, when leaden-colored clouds were observed advancing from the south, spreading out until they covered the sky. While still moving they burst with a sound of thunder and showers of fine dust began to fall. Accounts from other points state that Mount Tarawera was the first volcano to break forth, and hardly were the flames seen issuing from its crater than the entire Pacific range of mountains belched forth in sympathy, hurling flaming lava and stone over the surrounding country. For the first time the extinct volcano of Ruapeha was awakened to activity. The eruption of Ruapeha over an area of one hundred and twenty miles long by twenty in breadth, was nothing but a mass of flame and hot crumbling soil, which in places rose a height of 4,000 feet capped at the highest point by the Tekepa Geyser, said to have been one of the grandest in the world. During all this time showers of dust continued to fall until they became so dense as to make day dark as night and not until the second day did the dust cease falling. The entire country was shrouded in a thick mist, and a strong sulphurous smell. Numerous small villages were totally destroyed. Walroa was covered to the depth of 10 feet with dust and ashes. Ruapeha was completely engulfed as were also some other small villages. One hundred and twenty persons are known to have lost their lives, among them were several English residents. The loss of cattle strayed to death from the destruction of pasture lands by the dust is very great. Great distress exists throughout the Auckland Lake District.

COMMUNICATIONS.

NEW DIRECT ROAD FROM DESERONTO TO LONSDALE.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

Sir,—Our respected friend, Mr. Hanley, on Thursday last completed the purchase of a piece of land from Mr. James Darcy, by which the only obstruction to travellers from the gravel road to the back of the township will be removed. It now remains for the Indian Council to open the piece of road lying between the Slash Road and the railroad, and Deseronto will then have a direct road to Lonsdale.

Our Council say they are willing to aid the work, and as it will prove a great convenience to the travelling public, and undoubtedly be the means of bringing an increase of trade to the store-keepers of Deseronto it will be to our material advantage to induce the Indian Council to give the matter their favorable consideration, and to this end it would be well to make a representation composed of ratepayers of Deseronto and Tyndinaga to wait on the Indian Council at its next meeting and represent the matter to them in as favorable a manner as possible.

As I have already troubled you on several former occasions with this matter, I must apologize for again taking up your space; but as the question of good roads is an important one to every member of the community, and as we are exceptionally unfortunate in our roads in this locality, I trust you will once more plead our cause, and I sincerely hope that I shall not have to trouble you again. I could say a good deal about the boundary track (for a road it is not) but refrain, as it appears to be useless.

Yours, &c.

READ.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Thomas Hanley, second son of Mr. J. C. Hanley, met with a very severe accident last week. He was about to mount a horse and the animal suddenly started dragging him along the ground. He received several bad cuts on the leg and a general shaking up.

Dr. Reiner was at once sent for under whose care the patient is doing well.

The meeting in favor of Home Rule for Ireland, held in Hanley Hall last week was well attended. The chair was occupied by the Rev. Mr. Doreen, assisted by the Chairman, Rev. Father McCarthy and N. Vermilyea, Esq., Deputy Reeve of Thurlow. A collection towards the Irish election expenses was taken up, amounting to $60.

P. R. Palmer, Esq., who was taken sick during the meeting, is now better, and has returned to Belleville.

Miss Anna Whims has returned home from Belleville where she has been attending the High School during the past half year.

Wm. Meagher, son of Mr. Jas. Meagher, who has been suffering from a sore leg for a long time, had a surgical operation performed by Dr. Murphy, of Belleville, assisted by Dr. Forin.

Mr. John Whims as usual has a number of contracts on hand. At present he is engaged remodeling Mr. John Doyle's barn on the 4th con. An addition has been put to both the east and west sides and a litters has been put the whole length on the south side. The building will be now 102 feet wide.

From Northern Siftings we learn that a sportsman was lately firing at two pigeons on the top of a barn. A well known artist was engaged in the cupola of a high building when the bullets whizzed over his head, making it appear as if they were unpleasantly near. Had they struck the cupola no doubt the pigeon would have been turned out in search of the offender.

Agent the flower beds which were made in the school grounds on Arbor Day, and the beautiful flowers planted therein, we have no doubt, that later in the season, when they are in bloom, and their fragrance filling the air, orders for bouquets will be filled with neatness and despatch, and it will not detract from their beauty, if among the flowers there is one that is "Only a pansy blossom."

The weather is continuing very warm and dry. Last week almost every day the thermometer was dancing among the nine and ten shades. The farmers are all busy with their hay, and some are cutting their rye and fall wheat.

We are glad to learn that Miss Julia Hanley has been presented with a handsome gift, in recognition of her services in collecting the second largest sum of money by the sale of her property.

Miss Hanley is a general favorite and is always to the front in every good work in connection with church matters.

CALL around to-morrow and settle that little bill at THE TRIBUNE office.

CROP REPORTS.

BAY OF QUINTE DISTRICT.

BARLEY.—There is a less area of barley sown than last year. During the early part of June barley promised well, but the drought which set in about the middle of June, and which has continued since, has injured the crop very materially; it will probably be about a two-third crop, say 18 to 20 bush, per acre.

Winter wheat appears to be a pretty good crop; it was pretty well filled before the drought came; the acreage sown in this section is small.

Oats.—Not a large acreage sown; that put in early may be a fair crop provided rain comes shortly; late sowing was injured by the drought and will not be more than one-third of a crop.

PEAS.—A very small acreage sown. Early peas will be a fair crop, but late sowing will be very light.

HAY.—Timothy will be about half a crop in this section; the early drought prevented its stealing properly so that the crop is very thin, especially on high rolling-land. Clover and timothy mixed is a good crop, and will probably average 15 to 20 tons per acre on good ground.

POTATOES.—Which promised well in the beginning of this month have also been much hurt by the continued drought, and unless sufficient rain comes very soon the greater part of the crop, that is the late planting, will be a complete failure.

ORISE.—Such as mangold, turnips, carrots, &c., are not much sown in this section, those will also be a total failure unless sufficient rain comes very soon.

We would remark here that a considerable loss is caused to barley and other grains this season by what is known as scalding.

The heavy rains which fell just as the grain was coming up nicely, and which lay on the ground in many places did much harm; grain grown on lands properly drained did not suffer from this cause.

Nothing but good drainage can prevent grain from scalding.

We would offer a piece of good advice to the farmers of this district, and that is, to be careful not to overestimate their barley crop.

Last year most farmers had fully one-third less than they expected, and we hear the same will be true of this year. We trust a word to the wise will be sufficient.

It is said to say that if Mr. Goldwin Smith had taken a dose of Egar's anti-bilious pills before leaving for England he would not have made such a consummate fool of himself by his peevish utterances about Mr. Gladstone, or by his unbecomingly Canadian opinion on the home rule question. combining to make the scene attractive and impressive. Numerous were the expressions of surprise on the part of the visitors, as they surveyed the rich agricultural country through which the road passed, and which to many was seen for the first time, and no wonder that the longing to make this rich scene their own was intensified. At Napanee Mills the works of the paper company were visited. The station house at Newburgh was inspected, and the line as well as all the buildings along the line the party were particularly pleased with. It being unanimous in declaring that they were superior to those of any other line for neatness, neatness, comfort and beauty of design. The garden plot attached to the station at Newburgh was admired as a thing of beauty. Past Yarker, Moscow, Enterprise and other thriving communities the train glided smoothly. The roadbed was in excellent condition, and the rolling stock good, and the N. T. & Q. was declared to be in every respect a model little road.

Arriving at Tamworth the party debarked and throwing aside all hilarity assumed a business air prior to their descent on the other metropolis. The Tamworth Corporation Band, a highly creditable organization, dressed in neat uniforms, were in waiting and played the procession of visitors, now numbering one hundred, into the village. The "Wheeler" house was soon reached where mine good host had made extensive preparations for the hungry Kingstonians. The well filled tables were at once surrounded and the attack made on the mountains of good things under which they groined. There was a friendly rivalry as to which town could hold out the longest but Kingston men maintained their day evenged for long staying qualities. Dinner over it was decided to adjourn to the town hall which was soon filled with the representatives of citizens of both towns. Mr. James Aylsworth, of Tamworth, was called to the chair and presided with wonderful ease and no small display of vivacious wit and humor. Resolutions were then in compliance terms to the directors of the N. T. & Q. Ry., the Corporation of Kingston, the Kingston Board of Trade, and the villages along the line, were passed and elected speakers from Mayor Whitting, Mr. Maclellan, President of the Board of Trade, Messrs. W. R. Aylsworth, Bell, P. McIntyre, Ham, Carter, Benjamin, Richardson, Haydon, Gardiner, Dr. Dupuis and others. The addresses were excellent, the speakers referring to the pleasure they experienced on the trip, the excellent service provided by the railway company, and all dwelling on the importance of securing direct railway communication between Kingston and the fine country between that city and Tweseld. Such a connection was of vital importance to Kingston and would be of great benefit to the whole district. All the members of the Kingston delegation were sure Kingston would aid by giving a liberal bonus to the undertaking. Before closing hearty words of thanks were given to the Chairman and the Tamworth Band. The returning party was warmly made at Yarker the band turned out and played a selection at the station in a creditable manner. The members of the large party were much in debt to the service, and a pleasant and at the same time a most profitable day.

A fine boardwalk has been laid along the south side of Dundas street westward from Mill street to the corporation limits. Crossings are also made on the west side of St. George street over Edmund and Thomas streets, and over St. George at St. Thomas and Main streets.

JOHN Pinn, of the Reserve, was arrested by the Chief on Thursday last week for being drunk, and the following day he appeared before Judge Commissioner McCollough who fined him five dollars and allowed him the privilege of working off the duty of the Kingston soon east of the durt of the Limestone City and returned to Deseronto some time since, was charged with infraction of the Indian Act by buying liquor for the aforesaid Pinn and brought before the Police Commissioner who committed him to the Belleville goal for three months with hard labor. To that retreat he was accordingly conveyed by the Chief last Saturday.

THAT was a nice excursion party which sailed on the Quinte on the occasion of the A. O. U. W. excursion on Tuesday evening. The Workmen must feel flattered over the excellent patronage they enjoyed, and all the company felt grateful for the pleasant time afforded them. Good music, choice refreshments, pale moonlight and gentle zephyrs were all absorbed in unlimited quantities. Davey's Island was found to be the right place for two hours' solid happiness. Capt. Greaves is reported to have excelled himself, in his efforts to make the trip a success.

The Gipsy carried a very large excursion party from Napanea to Picton last Friday evening. There was, however, a very disorderly element and considerable quarrelling. Rowdies delight to swear and fight but we think that officials are falling in their duty to the public when they permit these things to occur without prosecuting the guilty parties. A little more back-bone is required.

The express trains were on Saturday delayed by accident which happened at Ham's bridge, near Ernestus station. A broken axle derailed a car, and striking a small bridge, it piled six cars up in a delightful confusion. One car of corn was dumped in the creek and a considerable quantity lost. By six o'clock a new bridge was built and the bonded goods transferred from the damaged car. No one was injured by the accident.

Several gangs of counterfeiters have been caught recently, with the plates for the counterfeit $10 bill on the Merchants Bank have been found. A number of these bills are in circulation, and the counterfeit is such a clever piece of work that detection is almost impossible even by experts, the weakest point being a difference from the genuine in the green coloring of the bill. The public would do well to be cautious in handling bills of this denomination.

SPARROW'S Great Royal Pavilion Show, which was billed to appear here last Wednesday, failed to connect, and the small boy has been in the dumps ever since. It appears it was found impossible to come to terms with the railway company and as neither party would yield the Circus remained at Napanea. The Kingston and other papers speak highly of the performance given by the company. Never mind. Forego will be at Belleville some time next month, when the quill drivers will please organize an excursion and take us all along.

The first delivery of Fall Prints just opened at The Big Store.

Excursion parties call at our dock every day of the week and it would be an impossible task to enumerate them.

The Varna commenced her Saturday trips to the Thousand Islands last week, having a nice party for her first trip. With genial Capt. Porte in command no more pleasant trip can be made in the holiday season.

A lady writes: "I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family for years, and could not keep house without it. For the relief of my patients consequent upon female weakness and irregularities, I consider it without an equal."

Rev. Mr. Hodgins, of Belleville, preached to the children of the Methodist congregation last Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Crossley will conduct the services next Sunday. The district text will be soon pitched for future use.

The Trenton Courier states that there was an exciting race recently from Belleville to Trenton, between the Quinte and Alexandria. Although the Alexandria had twenty minutes of a start, the Quinte came in two minutes ahead.

Who no other town can boast of the presence of so many cross-looking telegraph poles as of those which disgrace the streets of Deseronto. One might suppose that the great municipality had planted them for the purpose of insulting our long suffering community. Why not call an indignation meeting of citizens to protest against such treatment?

At the Grand political picnic to be held by the Mohawk Nation in September, among other matters to be discussed will be the expediency of them having the Dominion Franchise Act of 1885.

Mr. Wm. Stoddard is the sole agent for this wonderful medicine in Canada. It can safely be recommended to the public as a medicine which affords instantaneous relief.

Mr. Stoddard has a large number of flattering testimonials regarding its efficacy from well-known residents of Deseronto and vicinity.

SCOTLAND, the richest and most intelligent portion of the United Kingdom, cast its vote for home rule. The common school had been too long established there to permit electors to be diverted from the great question by side issues or sectarian prejudices. Edinburgh, the modern Athens, went solid for Gladstone, defeating Mr. Goschen his most able opponent. It is in such times as we are about to witness that we could claim to belong to the Scottish race.

A correspondent writing from Vaupous says: "What promises to be one of the finest bairns in the county was raised last Saturday on the premises of Milo Slavin, Esq., of Vaupous. Its dimensions are 44-40 with a perpendicular of 50 feet to the point of the crown. The child is a fine specimen of the finest timber and was prepared and erected under the skillful management of the contractor, Almon Delmago, Esq., of Milford. About forty neighbours assisted and the work was done by pulleys and horse power. Great credit is due Mr. Delmago for his ability in superintending the work, as well as to the neighbours who at a busy time so kindly gave a helping hand in its erection. Mr. Slavin is a man of public spirit and public enterprise, and we are mistaken if he does not make this building an ornament of its kind to the neighborhood."

The lake rains have revived the face of nature and everything wears the most lovely appearance.

THE fair announced to be held at Mr. Bedford's grove on Thursday next has been indefinitely postponed.

The English Church Sabbath School, of Napanea, held their annual picnic in the Mohawk Grove yesterday.

Over 150,000 lbs. of logs belonging to the Gilmour Company have been hung up on the Moira waters.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most effective blood purifier ever devised. It is recommended by the best physicians.

A philosopher has discovered that the reason why men succeed who mind their own business is because there is so little competition.

The sewer on Thomas street east of Second street is now nearly completed. It is cut through the solid rock and will drain an important area in that section of the town.

Gladstone is beaten, but that gives no assurance that the majority will be happy. The old man will be around to look after the funeral exercises. — Chicago Independent-Observer.

THE night blooming Cereus in Mr. E. W. Tait's garden attracted much attention this evening. He has been receiving there were six gorgeous blossoms in full bloom.

A valuable horse belonging to Squire Bowen got caught in a wire fence yesterday morning, and in its efforts to escape cut its foot nearly off at the fetlock. The veterinary surgeon from Napanea found it impossible to save the life of the poor animal.

Sir John Macdonald is at present making his trip across the continent to British Columbia. He has been received with great enthusiasm at Winnipeg, Regina, Gladstone and other small settlements along the line of the C.P.R.

Those two naughty logs over which generations of Deserontians have stumbled, and which constituted the crossing over Edward street on the west side of St. George street, have been removed.

It is fortunate that Richardson and Rayburn are good, steady citizens who carry neither corkscrews nor hatchkeys, or we would have the doleful task to perform some morning of fishing their cadavers out of the raging canal which gracefully winds past their residences on Thomas street.

BROTHER Jonathan is ominously silent all through these fiery trials. Depend upon it Canada will be forced to pay a good round bill of damages for the arrest of the American mackerel schooners. No honor of Lighthold awaits the Minister of Marine for the late naval actions on the Nova Scotia coast.

PROFESSOR Rudolph in a lengthy paper on the subject of "The Solar System," has estimated that in bulk 1,260,000 worlds like our own, having a surrounding ocean of gas on fire 50,000 miles deep, tongues of flames 100,000 miles long, and volcanic forces that hurl into the solar atmosphere luminous matter to the height of 100,000 miles, having in itself all the worlds belonging to our family planets and holding them all in their proper places, attracting with such superior force the millions of worlds that stray about, and wandering in the faithless abysses; they rush helplessly towards him and fall into his fiery embrace.

At the recent high school entrance examination there were 309 candidates for South Hastings. At Belleville 150 candidates wrote, at Tweed 25, and Deseronto 34. Of this large number only 27 were successful, 20 at Belleville, 3 at Tweed and 4 at Deseronto. Of those that wrote at Deseronto the following were successful: the number of marks obtained being given: Orpal Henderson, 391—, prepared by Miss Fry, 11, Hungerford; Kenneth McKee, 391, Mr. Emerson, Deseronto; Annie McBurn, 371, and Jennie Ryan 370, Miss Ryan, 6 Tyndinuk; At Belleville, Mary Thompson, 452, taught by Lester Ross, 4 Tyndinuk, also passed. The small proportion of successful applicants is due to the absurd character of the papers set by the examiners.

There is a general outcry against the character of the papers set by the examiners in the recent high school entrance examination. All the newspapers condemn the pedagogic method who prepared such a mass of absurd questions for these youthful candidates and admit there is no disgrace attached to those who failed. The examiners get all the blame but the department must accept the responsibility. "The bureau of education has not been covering itself with glory of late years. The minister may mean well but he is surrounded with a number of reitape incapables who hamper him in all efforts to improve our schools. Nothing less than a clean sweep in the department at Toronto will suffice to free Ontario from the system which is crushing out this individuality of the teacher and otherwise proving itself reactionary."

CALLING THE ANGELS IN.

We mean to do it. Some day, some day.

We mean to slacken this fevered rush

That is wearing our very souls away;

And grant to our loaded hearts a hush

That is only enough to let them hear

The footsteps of angels drawing near.

We mean to do it. Oh, never doubt.

When the burden of daytime toil is o'er,

We'll sit and muse while the stars come out,

As patriachs sat at the open door

Of their tents, with a heavenward-gazing

To watch for the angels passing by.

We've seen them afar at high noon-tide,

'When fiercely the world's hot flashing beat;

Yet never have bidden them turn aside,

Nor prayed them to hallow the cheer we spread,

To drink of our wine and break our bread.

We promise our hearts that when the stress

Of the life-work reaches the longest-

When the weight that we groan with hinders less,

We'll loosen our thoughts to such repose

As banishes care's disturbing din,

And then—we'll call the angels in.

The day that we dreamed of comes at length,

When, tired of every mocking quest,

And broken in spirit and shorn of strength,

We drop, indeed, at the door of rest,

And wait and watch as the day wanes

GREEN POINT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

We are again called upon to announce the death of one of our oldest neighbors, Mrs. Herman Cole, who departed this life on Tuesday after many weeks of great suffering of dropsy, in her 74th year. The funeral took place in St. Cermal Church on Thursday; the remains were then taken to the family plot in Cherry Valley.

Mr. John Shortt met with quite a serious accident on Wednesday while riding down a steep hill on horseback, the horse fell throwing his rider on his back; considerably bruising him.

DEMORESTVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

On Saturday last the remains of the late William Howard, of Belleville, were committed to the grave in the Methodist Cemetery, Big Island; and on Sabbath morning the Rev. Hiram Williams, of Sydney, preached the funeral sermon to a large and deeply attentive congregation. The widow, whose maiden name was Allison (a native of the island), and a large number of her early acquaintances and friends met to testify to her high esteem for the departed and their deep sympathy with the widow, who has been twice a widow within the last seven years.

On Sabbath evening the Rev. Nathan Howard, brother of the deceased took part in the service in the church here, greatly to the delight and edification of a large congregation. Mr. Williams, in his address, uttered some timely words of caution against the ostentatious display of modern funerals, and pleaded earnestly for reform in these matters.

Mr. Williams is engaged to preach the quarterly meeting sermon here on Aug. 8th, and on the evening of the same day will preach on the Big Island (South). Mr. Williams is a native of Big Island, and is held in high esteem among the people; but we venture to say has never received a heartier welcome by any class than since the union of the Methodist churches.

Death has again visited this vicinity. Miss S. A. McAllister died on the 23rd inst. she was a young lady very much liked by all who knew her. The funeral service, which was conducted in the Presbyterian Church by the Rev. J. Rattray, was largely attended; her friends have the true sympathy of the people in their great loss.

It stands farmers in hand to keep their barns well locked, as on Sunday night last a horse, buggy and harness were taken from Belongant's, 4th con. Thurlow, and on Monday evening a horse and covered buggy were taken from Mrs. J. Houston's hotel shed at Milltown; up to the time of writing no clue has been obtained as to the parties taking them.

READ.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Your Hay Bay correspondent in last week's issue gave an account of a dance given by one of his neighbors, at which he said the company was composed of "old professing Christians, young converts, young widowers, and, of course, whose general profession is to go contrary to Christianity." And he said most charitably (?) "It is really a pity that their cloven-footed master whom they serve so faithfully, did not make his appearance in their midst and cheer them on a little under the head and round which they are travelling so steadily and surely!"

We wonder if this modern moralist ever heard of the Apostolic words, faith, hope and charity, these three but the greatest of these is charity or love? It is not our intention to enter into the question as to whether dance is wrong or right, but this we do say, that dancing under proper restrictions has order and decorum about it. Why does not our moralist pursue in his neighbors, to be consistent, condemn the rude, rough and romping games, such as blind man's buff, post-office, forfeits, and other games of the same nature so often indulged in by professing Christians at their social gatherings.

The kissing, hugging, romping and bolstering nature of the game indulged in by grown up men and women must be condemned from a moral standpoint. But if at a social reunion of young people a quiet and modest dance is given, why must be moral critic, away with such moral claptrap, and let our club-footed censor remember the words, "Judge not that ye be not judged."

Mr. Donald McRae, who has charge of the county roads in this township, has with his men been doing good work and improving the roads very considerably so far this season. He has done an excellent job on the sidewalk near Marysville at McGurn's hill. This portion of the road has been stoned, graded and well gravelled. McRae's Hill has also been improved and gravel spread on the road as far as the third line, advantage having been taken of the statute labor in this division. Some needed repairs have been put on the third concession near Mr. Jacob Eaton's and two new culverts built. The much needed improvement has been made on the side road towards the fourth concession has been commenced. At present Mr. McRae is engaged spreading gravel near Deseronto. Much credit is due to Mr. McRae for the practical and workmanlike manner in which the roads are repaired in his division. All his jobs are designed to last and not to require everlasting tinkering and patching to make the roads passable for ordinary travel. The county roads throughout this township cannot be excelled in this county.

The Football Club had a grand match last week. Much interest was evinced in the game, and a large and fashionable attendance of the fair sex viewed the brawling efforts of the players.

Mr. James McAuley, Mr. Thomas Murphy and Mr. Joseph Downes were visiting their friends here last Sunday.

Miss Agnes Barry is visiting her sister Mrs. B. Connors, on the 4th concession.

The Flamed Knight of the post-office has his attention now devoted to the west. It is well for him to keep his eye on the setting sun.

The sound of the reaper is heard throughout the land.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Michael Ford was taken suddenly last Sunday with a stroke of paralysis. She was so ill on Tuesday that her relatives were telegraphed for.

A heavy shower during the past week has been very favorable for harvesting. On Sunday night and Monday we had heavy showers. A good deal of barley was cut and lying out, but the weather appears to have settled, and the thermometer is dancing again in the nineties in the shade.

Mr. Philip McCarty, the Township Road Surveyor, has let out the contract for the different grants on the roads throughout the township.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO GIRLS.

Thirty-nine girls. In ten years fifteen will have married. In ten years seven of the fifteen will be widows dependent upon their own exertions for bread and meat. In ten years fifteen of the remaining twenty-four will be sleeping beneath the sod. And how far apart they will be sleeping! One in Georgia, one in California, one in Ohio, one in Virginia, another, perhaps, in a missionary's grave in China, another amid the ashes of the ancient Aztecs of Mexico, another—but only time will tell where they all will sleep. In ten years, the nine I have not yet mentioned will begin to lose their sweetness and develop some of the sourness supposed to be inseparable from women that are destined to be old maids. In ten years, not one of the thirty-nine but will have tasted of the bitterness that comes in time to all human beings. Hope will be blighted, loved ones will be claimed by that same skeleton you behold just now, sorrow in a hundred forms will be experienced—indeed, to every one a surfeit of dead sea fruit will be offered.—[Atlanta Constitution.
